51. Read the passage below and then answer in full sentences the questions that follow.

Mulife was born like any other child. Two days later, his mother was discharged with the healthy baby. At the age of one year he looked like a child of three years of age. His mother showed him love by giving him real nutrition.

His father, Mr. Ssematama was a business man while his wife was a teacher at St. Mary's Junior School. During the school term, Mulife needed someone to stay with the parents took the trouble to find a person that would do this job to their wishes.

Enaru a 25 year old lady was their choice. She had trained at Safari Domestic School and got a certificate as a baby care taker.

One Monday afternoon, Enaru wasn't able to prepare the baby's midday meal at the usual time. There was hardly any water in the house.

She couldn't prepare the usual Irish potato meal. The little water available could be used for preparing a simple maize flour porridge.

This would also take a shorter time so she put it on fire. By this time the boy was crying.

Strangely enough, Mulife fell asleep. This was a chance for Enaru to collect some water from the well. She left the porridge on a slow burning stove.

During this, season water at the only well in Kiziba Village was scarce and at this time of the day there was a long line of people and thirsty livestock. Enaru thought that since it was school time the line would be shorter she was wrong. When Mulife woke up, he was hungrier than before. The tasty but hot porridge was on a stove. He crawled to help himself.

What followed was a very loud scream which attracted the neighbours. The boys face was white with porridge. His legs and arms were all red.

By the time Enaru come back, the baby had been given first aid. She then called her mistress who arrived shortly with the school ambulance. At St. John's Healthy Center, the boy received treatment.

The health worker said that the patient would about get well. The mother was thanked for being responsible she has bought a mobile phone for Enaru. Two weeks later, Mulife left the hospital.

53. Read the poem below and carefully answer the questions that follow.

The servant of the nation
I need my writing tool.
To impart something like a skill
Into these innocent children
Where is my writing tool?

I need my writing tools
Geometry set and set concepts
Exams are knocking, I need to teach
The innocent children of the nation
Where is my writing tool?

Sick, not sick, I have to teach
Happy all day I have to look
For it is none of their concerns
They need knowledge, so I give
To the innocent children of the nation
Where is my writing tool?

The low salary I get won't move me
The disrespect met won't tremble me
For I still remain happy and cool
And free from a poor man's curses
After being robbed of their penny
Corruption in the guise of taxation
Where is my handwriting tool clean the chalkboard
