My name is Namanya Ian. I go to Munyuma Primary School. My father drives me to school every day. When we were going to school last Friday, we saw a terrible accident along Rwakatsirabo Munyuma Road. Rwakatsirabo is a serious slope leading to the swamp.

The accident was caused by a speeding motorist who lost control, slithered helplessly down the slope and knocked Mwesiye, a school boy who was playing on the road. Having realised that we had seen him, he drove off and left the school boy lying in the middle of the road helplessly.

My father stopped the car, got out and carried the injured boy, put him in the car and drove to Biguli Health Centre.

The doctors attended to the injured boy who was in a critical condition. My father paid the bill and drove me to school.

When we reached school at 10:00 a.m, my father explained to the head teacher what had happened as to why we had come to school late. Mr. Ronald, the headteacher organised the assembly and told the school what had happened.

He taught us about safety on the road and said, "Road users should respect the Highway Code, pupils must stop playing on the road and always look right, look left and right again before crossing the road." The lesson ended at 11: 00 a.m. It was an interesting lesson.

THE CANDIDATE

God will make you the head,
He will put you in the lead,
If you do all your best,
God will do all the rest,
Believe in yourself,
He will direct you.

Pray to Him all the time,
He will give you courage,
As He fulfills his pledge,
To make you a victor,
In every race you take,
Worry not, He is worthy.

Talk to Him all the day,
Thank Him late in the evening,
He helps those who help themselves,
At dawn and at dusk,
He will answer you without limit,
Till eternity!

Refrain from bad company,
 Keep with good company,
