SECTION B

50. Read the passage below carefully and in full sentences answer the questions about it.

At Friendly Price Shopping centre, there works a tailor called Ssengendo Rahim. He is such a skilled tailor that he designs and sews men's and ladies' clothes in all fashions.

Sometimes, he sews wedding and graduation gowns with attractive designs. All his garments are purchased at affordable prices despite their nice looking. His eldest daughter Sharitah is a designer. She knits school sweaters and weaves nice table clothes as well as carpets. She has a big stall in the African Heritage village in Kampala city.

Sharitah also curves beautiful sculptures. Her sculptures are mostly bought by foreigners from USA , Sweden , China and France because they are decorated with attractive designs.

Rahim and his daughter earn a lot of money daily from their local and foreign customers. This has enabled them to expand their business and train their siblings as well. In addition, Rahim and Sharitah usually exhibit their products at the Uganda Manufacturers Association ground at Lugogo. 51. Read the poem below and answer the questions that follow.

Last week I visited a restaurant,
Deep in my home village,
It looked more of a kitchen,
With hot soup steaming there,
Garbage in one corner,
And flies everywhere.

Then a rat jumped from a pot,
And the waitress came around,
With a can in one hand,
A sharp long knife in the other,
She looked more of a farmer,
Than the person she thought she was!

I lost appetite there and then,
I tried to think of my way out,
I asked her to get me a banana,
And when she went for one,
I moved out never to return,
To this lousy place called a restaurant.
