SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Primary seven pupils at Yoyo Primary School decided to write a school magazine. This was in the year 2022. Having looked at different newspapers and seen different ideas, they chose which ideas to follow. 'We must have reports about what happens in school,' Jack said. 'Of course,' Aisha supported him, 'And I want to be a reporter,' 'Yes, you got a good mark for the mango story,' her friend Akello added. 'But how shall we find out what the teachers do?' 'Well, Mrs Makumbi will help us, won't she?' Aisha replied. Can I be a reporter, too? Sam asked. 'I have a brother in P.6 and a little one in P.3. So I can get news from them.' The others kept quiet.

'Ok, who can draw cartoons?' Jack started again. 'Why don't we ask two or three people? I don't mind trying but don't always see the funny side of things,' Taban said. 'That's a good idea,' Akello was encouraging all of them. 'Shall we have a crossword?' Jack asked.

'Let's try, but my mother says it's difficult,' Aisha said, 'Perhaps Mrs Makumbi would help us.' 'Advertisements?' Taban asked. 'Who on earth would advertise with P.7?' Jack asked. 'Won't it be the whole school?' Aisha asked. 'Of course,' Akello said, 'And we can have advertisements for books and clothes and all kinds of things.'

'Are we going to get reports from the LC?' It was Dauda who squeezed into the group. His father was an LC 2 councillor. 'Why not?' It was Akello again. 'We shall have to ask the head teacher,' Jack said. 'Wouldn't we have to ask him anyway?' Dauda said quietly. 'What do you mean?' asked Jack. 'Well! I don't know how we'll get paper to print our magazines. And the printer and photocopier are in his office.'

'Dauda is right,' Aisha said, 'We must sort out this writing. You know, she would like us to write short stories, too. I like reading them. We need an editor,' Everyone looked at Jack with wonder!

54. Read the poem below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

What joy it is!
For keeping animals
At home or on the farm
Depending on their number.

For many reasons we keep animals
To give manure, they're number one
But not from the dogs and cats
Whose waste seems useless.

Milk and eggs you will get
If great care is given to your cows and hens;
Money for home use will be there
After every sale of a healthy animal and bird.

Byuma Katurebe
