SECTION B (50 Marks)

51. Read the passage below and in full sentences answer the questions about it.
Matabi started her journey from Bwizibwera to see The Great River Rwiizi in Mbarara District. On her way, she reached River Kaana. She found that the stepping stones by which she was expected to cross the river had disappeared under the flood.

Then she had to decide one or two things; either to return home or to cross the flooded river. She threw herself into the water. Oh! She cried as she struggled with the rushing water. At once, the swift running water snatched away the food she was carrying. Even her clothes were torn off as she was tossed about the water.

Fortunately, she landed on a papyrus reed which she grabbed as she was screaming for help. A herdsman who had brought his cattle for drinking water saw her. He quickly jumped into the water and rescued her. He warned her never again to cross such a river alone.

QUESTIONS
