51. Read the passage below and in full sentences answer the questions about it.

Nante is a nine year old girl. She goes to Koome Primary School. She is in primary five. This year, Nante chose to stand for prefect ship in her school. In Nante's school, elections are organized after two years.

Nante was asked to stand for the post of library prefect. All the girls in her class promised to give her support. Six of the twenty boys in her class also promised to vote her for that office. They said that she would get new story books for their school library.

Nante has helped a number of pupils in her class to read and write simple stories and poems. The stories that they write are used by their teacher of English, Mrs. Katula, to set questions for their reading lessons. The pupils can now read and understand the stories. They can also answer questions very well.

Manzi, the campaign manager for Nante says that his candidate will win the elections. Nante is also not afraid of the other three candidates.
