51. Read the passage below and in full sentences answer the questions about it.

Saturday, 22 November 2022 will be a very important day for Mpigi Primary School. The will, for the first time, show the parents and members of the public what has been going on inside the school.

It has been set as an end of year concert day. On this day, each class from Primary One to Primary Seven will present an item for entertainment.

Preparations for this day started in September, just one week after the start of third term. Activities to be presented on stage by different classes include: songs, poems, plays and dances. The guest of honour, who is also our MP, has shown a lot of interest and readiness to grace the occasion.

"This is the opportunity for us to show parents and other people what we have been doing," the head teacher, Mrs. Kabonge, told the teachers and the pupils at the assembly.

The master of ceremonies, Mr. Kitiko, has already started warming up for the day. The music department, in conjunction with welfare department has prepared a lot of food and drinks for the guests, parents, teachers and the pupils.

I am hopeful that it will be a wonderful occasion as each class is promising to do their best.
