POLICE ARREST BODA BODA RIDERS

Police have arrested 150 bodaboda riders in Kampala due to the number of traffic offences they had committed.

In an operation conducted last week, many riders were found riding recklessly. Others had no genuine rider's license while others were riding DMC motorcycles. Some riders were riding under the influence of alcohol whereas others had overloaded their motorcycles. Some riders were seen diverting their motorcycles to smaller routes commonly known as "panya" to avoid being arrested.

Those who were arrested were taken to Jinja Road and Wandegaya Police Stations, waiting to be taken to courts of law. Others paid instant fines and the police released them with serious warning.

The leader of the operation, OC traffic Jinja Road Police Station, Wambete Fred, said that such operations were going to continue to reduce the rampant cases of road accidents. He appealed to all road users to respect the Highway Code so as to minimize road accidents, especially in and around Kampala.
