SECTION B

(Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each)

51. Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

In several towns, there are always places where people go for meals and some even offer accommodation services. These places are called hotels. In Kampala for example, there are a number of executive hotels e.g. Hotel Africana, Sheraton Hotel, Imperial Hotel, Serena Hotel among others. In other towns like Iganga, there are hotels like Mwana Highway Hotel, White Horse Hotel, Mum Hotel and Continental Hotel. The services offered in these hotels in Iganga Town are good and cheap compared to those offered by the hotels in Kampala.

There are people who are employed to offer services to customers in these hotels. They range from managers to cooks. A trained cook in a hotel is known as a chef. Waiters, waitresses and receptionists play a big role in hotel management.

Every hotel must embrace cleanliness and good customer care because this builds healthy competition among different hotels. Waiters and waitresses whose work is to attend to customers must be smartly dressed and show high sense of respect and care to their clients. If all this is done, one's hotel will be a place for everyone to enjoy their services. Remember the more customers, the more one earns.

52. Read the poem below and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

No father nor mother
No sister nor brother
With whom we used to play
They all died in the war; in the North
Now I wander on the streets
Because I am homeless
Why me?

A thief I am called
For the cold food I collect from the garbage heaps
Shared with cats and dogs
As if I am an animal
Why me?

Chased and hunted
Blamed and hated
A robber I am called
Because I have no place to stay
But on the cold verandah I sleep
God! Why me?

Larry Simpson
