SECTION B

51. Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Saturday, 22 November 2020 will be a very important day for Mabone Primary School. The school will, for the first time, show the parents and members of the public what has been going on inside the school.

It has been set as an end of year concert day. On this day, each class from primary one to primary seven will present an item for entertainment.

Preparations for this day started in September, just one week after the start of third term. Activities to be presented on stage by different classes include; songs, poems, plays and dances. The guest of honour, who is also our MP, has shown a lot of interest and readiness to grace the occasion.

"This is the opportunity for us to show parents and other people what we have been doing," the head teacher, Mrs. Kabonge, told the teachers and pupils at the assembly.

The master of ceremonies, Mr. Kitiko, has already started warming up for the day. The music department, in conjunction with welfare department, has prepared a lot of food and drinks for the guests, parents, teachers and the pupils.

I am hopeful that it will be a wonderful occasion as each class is promising to do their best.

Questions:

a) Which school is mentioned in the passage?

b) What will happen in the above school on 22/11/2020?

c) How many classes will perform on that day?

d) When did this school start preparing for their special day?

e) Apart from dancing, mention one activity the pupils will do during concert.

f) Who will preside over the above function?

g) What role will Mr. Kitiko play on that day?

h) How will the music department be of help for this occasion?

i) Why does the writer think that their function will be wonderful?

j) Suggest another word that can be used in place of 'opportunity' as use in the passage.

52. Read the poem below very carefully and then answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Elections Elections Elections.
Election time in our school, not in the country
A special time for electing school leaders
To lead us for the next twelve months
As we accord them cooperation and support.

When the news is broken to the entire school.
Boys and girls begin morning up and down
Like news sellers moving from vehicle to vehicle
To ensure that every soul there buys a copy
Heaven and earth the candidates promise
Through posters, flyers, warm smiles and unusual hellos.

A watched pot never boils, the saying goes
So the day for casting votes seems too far
For those who have been nominated
To contest in the end only one must emerge winner

Dear winner listen and heed
As you celebrate your victory
Forget not your electors
Who made you what you're Despise them not during your term of office
But serve them all to their satisfaction.
