SECTION B

51. Read the story below and answer the questions about it in full sentences.

Kagoya is a twelve-year old girl. She is in Primary Seven at Wale-Wale Primary School. She comes from a humble background. She lives with her parents. She has two brothers and two sisters.

Kagoya likes her studies very much. Every day, she wakes up very early to prepare and walk to school, two kilometres from home. When she gets to school, she attends all her lessons. She does all the exercises and correction of the questions she has not passed.

Although Kagoya does not pass exams very highly, her teachers like her for her discipline, commitment to class work and engaging herself in other school activities. They know that she is able to get a first grade in her Primary Leaving Examination. When school closes every evening, Kagoya walks quickly home.

The moment she reaches home, she sits down to do handiwork. Some days she weaves mats; other days she knits tablecloths. Kagoya is so skilled at handiwork.

Every Saturday, Kagoya and her siblings take their products to Mugaige Market. As soon as they arrive there, people buy the products within a short time. They collect a lot of money. Kagoya spends a little part of the money to buy threads and colours, some books, pens and pencils. They also buy some tomatoes and vegetables for home use.

When they reach home, they hand over the rest of the money to Mr. Mwanamoiza, their father. On the second day of the week, he takes the money to the bank, saving it for future development.

Questions

- a) How old is Kagoya?

Hey man!

Be informed that

We are not happy with you

You cause pain to our bodies

Hurt to our spirits.

Hey man!
Our children are daily food,
To your children, cows and goats.
You can't allow our children to grow,
Big enough to make big forests

Hey man!
Have you not remembered,
We are of use to you?
By the Creator's own plan?
We make rain for you.

Hey man!
Our stems and roots are cut,
By your greedy relatives
Stop mistreating us Mr. Man.
Mr. and Mrs. Tree are tired!
