Before the coronavirus pandemic, I was enjoying my studies very much since I knew it was my last year in a primary school. I was looking forward to joining a secondary school. When schools closed on 20th March, 2022, we had a brief meeting at home. Daddy chaired it. It was all about what we would be doing during the lockdown as the government had announced.

"What are you going to do during this time?" Daddy asked us.

"We will be revising our books from home". Akwao, my sister said.

"Yes, we will be revising our books"Opio, our senior four candidate old brother, agreed. "And we will be doing physical exercise in the evening after revising.

Daddy asked me what my suggestion was. I suggested that going to the village would be a better choice. Mom supported me and in the end, we won! We travelled to the village two days later.

At home, you were provided a washing facility and soap so we can wash our hands regularly to avoid COVID-19 infections. While in the village, we were helping our grandparents in their gardens and also look after cattle, sheep and goats. We also learnt a lot from the village: How to control soil erosion, how to spread manure over soil and how to make baskets. When it started raining heavily, we decided to plant some trees so as to protect the environment. It was really considerable staying in the village for such a long time.
