SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions about it in full sentences.

Namugenyi Bridge had just been replaced when a heavy down pour washed it away. The unexpected tragedy happened just when the residents of Magaro village had used it for a fortnight. The down pour that took nearly a couple of hours not only washed away the bridge but also destroyed people's property as well as crops. This hampered all the preparations that were underway for the inauguration of the bridge that was scheduled to take place on 24/04/2023. The guest of honour was going to be Hon.Gen. Katumba Wamala, the state minister for works and transport.

When the news about the collapse of the bridge had spread to the whole village as wild fire, the residents were filled with sadness. The saddest of all were the pupils of St. Bruno community school who had just resumed their studies after a full month of repairing the bridge. The chance of going to school had been ruined again.
