54. Study the poem below very carefully and then, in full sentences, answer questions that follow.

Oh holiday! Lovely and useful holiday!
Some call you vacation, others a break
Who made you, dear holiday?
You're as beautiful as day break

Who needs you not, lovely holiday?
Who feels not your touch oh holiday?
Good news you are to all the living,
Even the Lord had you after creating.

Teachers await your arrival
Like a groom awaiting her bride,
To relax from their daily torture,
Standing all day, shouting and marking books.

Learners long for you, lovely holiday
Sleeping a little more they're sure,
Homework, class work, sit down, shut up... are no more!
to the terms fatigue and torment you're the cure.

Our parents crave for you as well,
Great relief you bring them they tell
Relief from rising each day before dawn
And relief from the tiresome house chores.
