SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each

51. Read the passage below and, in full sentences, answer all the questions about it.

Keeping animal in Uganda started long ago with our great grandparents. Today, most people keep animals in their homes. These are called domestic animals. These animals are very important to people for they provide meat, milk, hides and skins. Their dung is also used as manure. Some animals guard our homes while others are kept as pets.

Animals, as well as people, need protection and care. They need proper feeding, rest, treatment among others. If not provided, animals become miserable.

On Mr. Mukozi's farm in Kaloke Village, he rears cattle sheep and poultry. He employed five more people to help him on his farm. There is a veterinary surgeon who treats the animals when they are sick. Let's all be kind to animals and avoid torturing them by docking and starving them.

Lucky is my family
Mother, father and I,
Together with my two siblings,
Living together in harmony,

Oh! My happy family!
Everyday father teaches us skills,
Mother cooks and washes clothes,
My sister and I tether goats and collect firewood,
In the evenings, we spare time to play

Oh! My happy family
Grandmother visits us weekly,
Uncle and Aunt join us whenever father calls.
Sharing is our daily slogan,
Food, clothing, everything,
Oh! My happy family.
