SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions about it.

Democracy means the freedom to choose. It is the freedom to choose who should make some decisions on your behalf because it is not possible for everybody to take part in decision making.

The choice of these people is done by voting. To ensure that people choose the representative they want, voting is done through a secret ballot.

At our school, Moradeen Academy, prefects are elected once every year. These prefects are first nominated by the pupils themselves. After the nomination, they are given a day to campaign. On this day, parents are invited to witness this function. When this is over, Mr. Mugalu Charles, the Chairman of the School Electoral Commission, declares the day for voting.

The voting is done exactly like Members of Parliament are elected. Ballot papers are given to learners depending on the posts contested for.

I advise other schools to copy our system. This is because children elect their own prefects. This is good because it trains democracy at this early age.

However, I did not participate in this year's elections in April because candidate classes are not allowed. The rest of the classes from P.1 to P.6 are free to take part. All in all, I enjoyed this year's swearing-in ceremony. The inspector of school, Mr. Kanene Bosco was invited. In his speech, he thanked the headmaster for his good governance of the school.
