Flavia was the fifth born of Mr. and Mrs Muvumba of Ishongorero Village in Isingiro District. She was born at the time when the family members were starving due to poverty. Since her parents were too poor to bring up the baby, they thought of throwing her into River Rwizi that flows about six kilometres away from their Village.

One morning, Flavia's mother went with her with an intention of throwing her into the river. However, she did not have the courage to do so. She therefore wrapped her in a woollen cloth, put her into a wooden basket and set it to float on the river.

The basket floated until it reached a place where a holy man was taking a bath. On getting the basket, he was surprised to see a baby inside. He took pity on the little girl and brought her up as his own child.

53. Read the poem below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

Music, Dance and Drama
The source of joy and excitement
Lively and cheerful pupils
Singing, dancing and acting.

The most wonderful school season
When drums, flutes and xylophones
All leave the school music store
And fill the air with their sweet sounds.

How I like the music season
When the festivals are approaching
We get ready to compete
Determined to beat other choirs and troupes.

Often winners we are
With refreshed brains and peaceful minds.
We go back to class
And face the examinations with bravery.
