Dear Sir,

Re: APOLOGY FOR NOT COMPLETING WORK

I apologize for not completing the assignment you gave us in English yesterday. I was sincerely down with the terrible head ache after school.

I was taken to Moroto hospital for treatment and came back very late. I have done half of the assignment and I promise to have completed by evening today.

Attached here is the medical letter from Moroto hospital.

I shall be very grateful if my apology is positively regarded.

Yours faithfully,
Okiria James

54. Read the poem below carefully and, in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Long ago, when a man talked,
A woman had to answer "YES"!
His directives were final.
Poor woman had to follow without questions.

All daughters were like their mothers.
They had to be given away soon like property!
The sons resembled their father.
When the father died, they inherited his way
Poor woman! She had to suffer!

But now, a woman is no longer a slave.
To remain without a say at all
Daughters and sons are all alike.
Mothers and fathers all flock together.
What a wonderful change God has made!
