SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

"Sleepy heads, sleepy heads" was the wake up line that Miss Ramula our matron used every 5:00 a.m. This would go on for over ten minutes as most of the pupils turned and twisted in the beds before they could go back to sleep. This always forced Miss Ramula to sound the alarm. The alarm was so noisy that no child in our dormitory wanted it. Those children who woke up early complained the most. Soon, Miss Ramula got tired of the complaints. She chose to use another method of waking us up.

One morning, as usual, Miss Ramula moved around the dormitory waking us up. Some children woke up and went back to bed. I think they were waiting for the alarm. This time round, she did not sound the alarm. The children who did not wake up remained in bed. They did not get morning tea and they even missed the morning lesson. They woke up at 8:00a.m. They felt ashamed of moving to class that time. These children had learnt a very good lesson. Ever since that day, all children wake-up without wasting Miss Ramula's time.
