51. Read the passage below carefully and then in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

Mr. Sanyu is a well known baker in Rwebisengo Town. He started baking two years ago. Mr. Sanyu owns a big bakery and employs one hundred workers. These workers do their work with commitment because he pays them very well.

Because Mr. Sanyu has the duty to market and sell his products around the nearby trading centres and towns, his wife Kwagala Hellen, supervises the employees. She makes sure that they bake the bread well and produce what is adequate for sell.

Mr. Sanyu's bakery produces four thousand loaves of bread daily. He uses the money got from the sales to pay the works. He also uses the remaining to pay his children's school fees and pay taxes to the town council authority.

Mr. Sanyu however, says that there are some challenges he faces. Among them, is high competition from other bakeries.

Besides, some of his clients are not trustworthy. They take bread on credit but they don't want to pay him in time. This affects him, for example, in buying ingredients. King's Hotel, the place to relax,
Decent waiters and waitresses,
Welcome customers to it,
Twenty four hours a day,
They come for meals and accommodation.

Breakfast, lunch and supper they order
After studying the day's menu,
Placed on dining tables,
They eat, chat and laugh,
Bring chicken and chips, they order.
Warm or cold drinks, they don't mind.

Yes, we are now okay,
Bring the bill, they say,
They satisfied dinners,
Foot the bill, some go
And others spend peaceful nights.
