SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each

51. Read the passage below and use it to answer the questions that follow in full sentence.

We enjoy holidays and vacations a great deal. Holidays are a time to celebrate and be thankful for the gift of life. That is why we should plan before they come. Unfortunately, most people do not plan for their holidays. They think that planning for a holiday is a waste of time and money.

Every year, there are three school holidays on our calendar. Holidays are good for both children and adults. For many of us, it is a time to sleep late, watch TV, play, help in the housework and farm chores. We also visit friends and relatives. Some people travel from urban to upcountry. Other people spend their holidays in the urban centres. Either way, people are eager to enjoy when it is time for holidays. There is usually some shopping and packing to do!

Even though it is short, it is important to plan your every holiday. While you plan, it is wise to think about the amount of money you will need to spend. Before going to visit friends or relatives, it is good to inform them so that they can plan for you. Remember that they may have their own plans. Above all, it is advisable to inform your parents or guardians since they are the ones who usually provide you with the money.

It is a good idea to include reading activities in your plans. These will help you catch up quickly with the school routine once the new term begins.

53. Read the poem below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

I have hunted

For my dear friend

Who is in the form of coins and notes

But I have failed to disco ver

His whereabouts.

As blind as my friend is,

He hides in the rich's pockets.

As dumb as my friend is,

He employs the police

To guard him against robbers

While at his home-the bank.

With my friend missing,
I get terribly sad
For never can I afford
Any food to drop
Into my empty stomach.
