Dear Mother,

I am very pleased to have this chance of communication to you through a letter for the first time. I hope you are fine. Here at school, I am doing well.

Mum, I am writing to inform you about something that happened on my way to school. Do you remember Mr. Mbiji, the boda boda cyclist whom you hired to bring me to school? He started telling me that he wanted me to be his girlfriend, because I am very beautiful. Can you imagine that? I threatened to report him to the police. This was after he had tried to offer me fifty thousand shillings so that I could accept his proposal.

Mum, I am suggesting that next time, you don't give me anyone to bring me to school. You should not also send anyone for me at the end of the term. Either you or Dad should come for me. I also suggest that you report Mr. Mbiji to police for child abuse. Such men are a danger to young girls who are still at school.

The day for visitation is after this week. I hope you are preparing to come and see me. I have improved in class. I look forward to meeting you on Saturday 28th July 2023.

Your affectionate daughter,
Immaculate.

Ready to help you if you read me

The words boldly printed on me
For everyone with normal eyes

Always at one place I am
On my pair of legs
Come shine, come rain I am there
At that same place you'll get me
Ready to show you where to go

Walkers, cyclists, motorists need my help
I have no mouth, no I don't
But I speak loudly enough
Only follow the ride of the arrow
You'll reach that end of your journey

School children love me
Visitors and strangers alike need me
But forget to bid me farewell
I never get annoyed, though
For my work is to serve them
