God Given Junior School

P.O Box 244,

Luweero.

1st July 2023

The headmistress

God Given Junior School

P.O. Box 244, Luweero

Dear madam,

Re: APOLOGY

I am a Ugandan female aged twelve. I am writing this letter to apologise to you for hiding myself in the toilet for a full week hence putting you on pressure of looking for me all over the District.

I hid myself because I didn't have a mathematical set and yet the teacher, Mr. Mutaseka had promised to kill whoever didn't have a set that week so, I feared to be killed.

On addition, my book of English got lost. So I feared the teacher of English Miss Namyekozo to hit my head as she normally does to whoever doesn't have her work.

Therefore, I humbly request you to talk to those teachers so that they can behave parentally.

I look forward to receiving your positive response.

Yours faithfully,

Mulalu Zebidayo

MULALU ZEBIDAYO.

53. Read the poem below and in full sentences answer the questions

that follow

The unreliable creature!

Man greets you in the morning
With a smile he hugs you,
Eats the good things from, your hands
To complete the needs of his day.

The unreliable creature!

Tomorrow man forgets
What you did for him yesterday,
Talks ill and false about you,
To win favours from your
Enemy and get the needs of another day.

The unreliable creature!

Man comes back to you
The following day to Tell you about your enemy/
To keep the enmity strong
In order to enjoy your down fall.

The unreliable creature!
When you do good man
Is unhappy with and segregates you
When you do bad, man blames
You a lot and jubilates your down fall
When you keep quiet, man
Calls you a useless person
Hooo! Man! Hmm! No!
