SECTION B: 50 MARKS

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

Being responsible is a must for every one including children. This was not the same for Mubi, a thirteen year old boy. In P.7, Mubi always did what was right only when there was an adult like a teacher or his parents but he always acted irresponsibly. He ate food and left the plates where we ate from and walked away. He could also not take good care of his school property like books.

Every one at school realised that Mubi was a bad boy. They reported him to the teachers but he always gave excuses to his bad behaviour. One Friday, at break time, Mubi took his tea and bread. He also had some cakes and bananas. As usual, he ate and left everything including the banana peelings that he threw on the floor. As he stood up to leave, he accidentally stepped on the banana peelings and slid. Mubi fell down flat on the floor. All the children in the dining hall turned and looked at Mubi. What a shame! He was all dirty. He could not get up from the floor.

One of his classmates, Fiona saw what had happened. She ran and helped Mubi to get off the floor. She also picked all the peelings and later escorted Mubi out of the dining hall. Mubi cleaned up and went back to class. What a lesson for Mubi!
