Questions 51 to 55 carry 10 marks each

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions in full sentences

CHILDREN'S RESPONSIBILITIES

What are children's responsibilities? This may refer to a set of activities or assignments children are supposed to do either at home, school or in the society they live in. Children have some responsibilities that they are supposed to carry out for the development of their homes. Though children are young, their participation in the activities at home saves the family a lot of money. For example, if a child can clean utensils, the courtyard, fetches water, helps mum to prepare meals and possibly irons clothes, a parent will not employ a house worker. So, that money will be saved for other purposes. By getting involved in domestic work, a child is training to be active and responsible in future.

Children are also responsible for respecting their parents and elders. This will win them favour from parents. Being obedient is a full responsibility of children to elders.

It is the responsibility of children to report people who violate their rights. Such people may include defilers and exploiters. Responsible children should not accept gifts that are intended to entice them into sexual activities. It is still the children's responsibility to avoid bad touches. They should not engage in sex till they are old enough. Many Ugandan children have dropped out of school due to unwanted pregnancies and sexual interactions before the right time. Therefore, children are advised to live responsibly. By living responsibly the world shall have responsible parents in future.
