MY MEMORABLE DAY.

One morning, I woke up filled with joy but not knowing the exact cause of it. Done with my morning routine, I heard a call from my mother. It was in an unusual tone.

I quickly ran to her only to find her busy packing our travel bag. She told me that since I had behaved well during COVID-19 lockdown, she was also going to reward me with a special treat.

I went to the bathroom and did the needful. Shortly after, we set off. The journey to Namugongo Matryrs' shrine was exciting though tiring. I found myself in the heart of Uganda's capital city. Everything that came to my eyes was astonishing. Oh my God the storeyed houses, vehicles, jam in the city and many others.

The following day was Martrys' day and it was a colourful ceremony led by FortPortal diocese. The choir sang beautifully and I enjoyed every bit of it. After prayers, we had our lunch from an executive restaurant and boarded back home.

I happily came back to my home village after having some good time out.

In class when the teacher asked us what we had done during the short holiday, I was the first person to put up my hand because I wanted to share my experience. I learnt a lesson that behaving well costs nothing but earns a lot. My fellow candidates, lets behave well.

Oh my mother !

Joy filled you heart

A smile covered your face

When you heard my first cry

Though you had undergone a lot of pain

Oh my mother !

You took care of me

Sleepless nights you spent

Now I am big

May God bless you
