SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow in sentences.

For quite some time, I had been wondering why my mother praised banks. I never knew their importance. I got the answer to this when I visited Centenary bank – Mukono Branch last Wednesday. It was our teacher's idea to take us there because he was going to teach us about banking.

We boarded the school van and reached the bank at 10:00am. Smartly dressed cashiers welcomed us and the branch bank manager introduced them to us. I wondered whether our teacher Mr. Olouch Owen had informed them about our visit. Everything was in order. The bank manager told us the importance of banks to people, for example giving loans. That did not interest us like keeping our school fees safe.

We were excited when we were given bank slips to fill in. The tellers helped us to fill in these forms together with our teacher of English. At the end of this exercise, we went back to school very exhausted but at least we had learnt how to deposit our school fees.

1. Which bank did the pupils visit?
What answer did writer get?
3. Who brought the idea of visiting the bank?
4. How did the pupils reach the bank?
5. Write one importance of the bank mentioned by the manager.

The West

Help the children,
The future of tomorrow
The leaders of tomorrow
The heirs of tomorrow.

Parents, parents
Why mistreating us,
Why leaving us on streets,
Leaving us without food,
Clothing and shelter.

Fathers, fathers
Why denying our rights
Why leaving us illiterate
Why leaving in the hands
Of cruel step mothers
Ready to exploit,
Ready to kill,
Why mistreating us.

Government, government,
Why so quiet
Come on come on
And rescue our lives
And prevent the vanishing generation.

Owen From Kenya
