SECTION: B (5 questions 10 marks each)

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

The natural world in which people, plants and animals live is the environment. People cherish the environment since all that they need to sustain their lives is got and done there.

Firstly, the crops that are grown for food and for sale are grown on land which is the most important component of the environment. People grow crops since without food, there is no life.

In addition, people rear animals for food, manure, companionship, wealth and pride among others. All these are essential in our day-to-day living. Though our environment serves numerous purposes, many people have resolved to destroying it for their selfish reasons.

These people have cut down almost all the natural forests to get timber and charcoal which has left the wildlife in danger. Not only the wildlife but also the rest of the living creatures including man are suffering.

Rainfall is scarce these days because the trees that contribute to rain formation have been cut down. More to that, farmers, instead of digging, have gone on to use herbicides that kill the important organisms in the soil leaving it toxic to the crops and to the produce.

The government, though they observe whatever happens, have paid a blind eye to all the occurrences. In fact they champion the degradation through industrialization especially in wetlands and forested areas.

My appeal to the society is to unanimously rise and guard against environmental degradation so that we can have a peaceful living. The government should also come up with measures to protect our beautiful nature.

52. Read the poem below and then answer the questions about it in full sentences.

In our community, culture thrives,
A tapestry of customs and lives,
From the rhythms of the drum,
To the stories that are told and sung.

We honour our ancestors' ways, Preserving traditions that amaze. From the clothes we wear with pride, To the dances we perform side by side.

Our culture, a precious thing,
A legacy that we must keep at all cost.
For it connects us to our past,
And helps us build a future that will last.

So let us celebrate our heritage,
With festivals, food and songs that bridge,
The generations that came before,
And those that will follow evermore.
